Why should you be an MSPA Sponsor?

The MSPA is at the centre of the mystery shopping industry. With over 450 member companies worldwide we measure the quality of customer service given by more than 100 000 companies around the globe.

As a sponsor of the MSPA Europe conference in Malta you would receive a unique opportunity to demonstrate your dedication to improving customer service levels and to show your support and engagement in the mystery shopping industry.

We expect 150 to 250 mystery shopping providers' presidents, CEOs and executives from multi-national companies to be present.

You may select from different levels of sponsorship participation, all providing enhanced exposure of your products and services, and choose the one that's right for you.
